

(2) The State IV-D agency may charge an individual who is receiving services under § 302.33(a)(1) (i) or (iii) of this chapter a fee not to exceed $25 for submitting past-due support for Federal tax refund offset. The State must inform the individual in advance of the amount of any fee charged.

(3) Any State which requests the Office to send the advance written notice under paragraph (e)(1) of this section will be charged a fee, in an amount established by the Office in instructions, for printing and mailing of pre-offset notices. This fee shall be credited to the Health and Human Services appropriations which bore all or part of the costs involved in making the collection.

(j) Each State involved in a referral of past-due support for offset must comply with instructions issued by the Office.

§ 303.73 Applications to use the courts of the United States to enforce court orders.

The IV-D agency may apply to the Secretary for permission to use a United States district court to enforce a support order of a court of competent jurisdiction against an absent parent who is present in another State if the IV-D agency can furnish evidence in accordance with instructions issued by the office.

[61 FR 67241, Dec. 20, 1996]

§ 303.80 Recovery of direct payments.

(a) Definition. Direct payment means an assigned support payment from an absent parent which is received directly by an AFDC recipient.

(b) Direct payments that must be recovered by the IV-D agency. In States that place the responsibility for recovery of direct payments with the IV-D agency under the State plan option at § 302.31(a)(3)(ii) of this chapter, the IV-D agency must recover all such payments. The only exception is a direct payment retained by the recipient during the period when the sanction for failure to cooperate is in effect, as provided at 45 CFR 232.12(d).

(c) What the IV-D agency must do prior to establishing a repayment agreement with an AFDC recipient. Before establishing a repayment agreement with an AFDC recipient, the IV-D agency must:

(1) Document that the recipient has, in fact, received and retained direct payments, and the amounts;

(2) Provide written notice of intent to recover the payments to the recipient that includes the following:

(i) An explanation of the recipient's responsibility to cooperate by turning over direct payments as a condition of eligibility for AFDC, and the sanction for failure to cooperate as provided at § 232.12(d) of this title;

(ii) A detailed list of the direct payments which have been retained by the recipient, as documented by the IV-D agency, including the dates and amounts of these payments as well as a description of any documentary evidence (such as photocopies of the checks) which the IV-D agency possesses;

(iii) A proposal for a repayment plan between the recipient and the IV-D agency;

(iv) An explanation that repaying retained direct payments to the IV-D agency according to a signed repayment plan which meets the conditions of paragraph (d) below is a condition of cooperation under § 232.12(b)(4) of this title.

(3) Provide the recipient with an opportunity for an informal meeting to clarify the recipient's responsibilities and to resolve any differences regarding repayment of the directly received support by the recipient.

(d) Requirements of the repayment agreement. The repayment agreement between the IV-D agency and the recipient who has received and retained direct payments must be reasonably related to:

(1) The recipient's income and resources including the AFDC grant; and

(2) The total amount of retained support.

(e) Referrals to the IV-A agency for a determination of failure to cooperate. The IV-D agency must refer a case to the

IV-A agency with evidence of failure to cooperate if:

(1) The recipient refuses to sign a repayment agreement; or

(2) The recipient enters into a repayment agreement but subsequently fails to make a payment under the terms of the agreement.

(f) Subsequent notification to the IV-A agency as required. If the IV-D agency has referred a case to the IV-A agency with evidence of failure to cooperate for either of the reasons in paragraph (e) of this section the IV-D agency must notify the IV-A agency when either of the following changes in circumstances occurs:

(1) The recipient who refused to enter into a repayment agreement consents to do so and signs the agreement; or

(2) The recipient who defaulted on an agreement begins making regularly scheduled payments according to the agreement. Under this paragraph, a regularly scheduled payment is a payment made in the current month for the amount specified in the initial repayment agreement between the IV-D agency and the recipient. The resumption of regularly scheduled payments cannot be interpreted to mean payment of amounts which were not paid during the period of default, nor amounts which could be categorized as balloon payments or which would be due as a result of an acceleration clause. To recover amounts due from any period of default, the IV-D agency must extend the duration of the repayment agreement.

§ 303.100 Procedures for wage or income withholding.

(a) General withholding requirements.

(1) The State must ensure that in the case of each absent parent against whom a support order is or has been issued or modified in the State, and is being enforced under the State plan, so much of his or her wages must be withheld, in accordance with this section, as is necessary to comply with the order.

(2) In addition to the amount to be withheld to pay the current month's obligation, the amount to be withheld must include an amount to be applied toward liquidation of overdue support.

(3) The total amount to be withheld under paragraphs (a)(1), (a)(2) and, if applicable, (f)(1)(iii) of this section may not exceed the maximum amount permitted under section 303(b) of the Consumer Credit Protection Act (15 U.S.C. 1673(b)).

(4) In the case of a support order being enforced under the State plan, the withholding must occur without the need for any amendment to the support order involved or any other action by the court or entity that issued it other than that required or permitted under this section.

(5) If there is more than one notice for withholding against a single absent parent, the State must allocate amounts available for withholding giving priority to current support up to the limits imposed under section 303(b) of the Consumer Credit Protection Act (15 U.S.C. 1673(b)). The State must establish procedures for allocation of support among families, but in no case shall the allocation result in a withholding for one of the support obligations not being implemented.

(6) The withholding must be carried out in full compliance with all procedural due process requirements of the State.

(7) The State must have procedures for promptly terminating withholding:

(i) In all cases, when there is no longer a current order for support and all arrearages have been satisfied; or,

(ii) At State option, when the absent parent requests termination and withholding has not been terminated previously and subsequently initiated, and the absent parent meets the conditions for an alternative arrangement set forth under paragraph (b)(3) of this section.

(8) The State must have procedures for promptly refunding to absent parents amounts which have been improperly withheld.

(9) The State may extend its withholding to include withholding from forms of income other than wages.

(10) Support orders issued or modified in IV-D cases must include a provision requiring the absent parent to keep the IV-D agency informed of the name and address of his or her current employer,
